A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO ABBEY ROAD.

The policeman, who was running a fever, was relieved early during his night shift and headed home. Upon arriving at 2 am, and sensing that his wife was asleep, he undressed in the dark and was about to get into bed when his wife woke up and said 'Dear, can you go to the all-night drugstore and get me some aspirin, I have a bad headache.' 'Certainly dear,' and he got dressed again and went to the drugstore. When he was buying the aspirin, the sales clerk said, 'Aren't you police officer Smith of the ninth precinct?' The officer replied, 'Yes, I am,' 'Then why are you dressed in fire chief Lankford's uniform?'
